The following publications have appeared or have been accepted.

Lui VC, Mohammad I, Deol BD, Balarezo A, Deng L, Garwood CL. Post-discharge medication reconciliation: reduction in readmissions in a geriatric primary care clinic. Journal of Aging and Health 2018; accepted for publication.

The following awards have been presented.

Christine Rabinak, EACPHS Junior Faculty Research Award Winner, Presented on Research Day, Nov. 7, 2018.

The following grants have been awarded.

Adalah Yahia and Joe Fava (advisor), “#KnockOutHPV: a community-based interdisciplinary approach to improving HPV vaccine uptake at a large urban public university”. NABP/AACP District IV Student Project Award, $3,000. Outcomes to be presented at the NABP/AACP District IV meeting at Purdue University Nov. 2019.

The following leadership and service activities are reported.

The following abstracts have been presented.

ACCP Annual Meeting Abstracts – Coming soon!

The following invited presentations are reported.

Francine Salinitri and Sheila Wilhelm. “Reliability and validity of a checklist to evaluate student performance in a problem based learning group. Presented at the Midwest Teacher Scholar Retreat at Sullivan University, Nov. 10, 2018

The following volunteer faculty member achievements are reported

The following student accomplishments are reported

Ben August, SMSHP Exemplary Student Award, Awarded Nov. 14, 2018

Ashley Blanchett, SMSHP Student Research Award, Awarded Nov. 14, 2018

Souheila Hachem and Richa Shah won the Clinical Skills competition at WSU and the state competition at the Annual MSHP meeting, Nov, 2018